

Ladies and Gentlemen, Dear Authors, we would like to invite you to publish in next year's issue of the "International Journal of Slavic Studies Transgressive, Pragmatic and Speculative Horizons of Popular Literature and Culture".

We would like to make issues related to the cultural identity of contemporary Slavs the main topic of the issue. The issues of interest to us concern two thematic blocks. The first refers to the traditions and challenges of the present day and the mechanisms present in them: exclusion, manipulation, cultivation of cultural patterns and creative adaptation, including duplicated cultural stereotypes and clichés. The second is related to pop culture projects of the future

To the second part of the journal, in accordance with the suggestions made by the authors and researchers, we invite everyone who would like to present interesting articles on research aspects of the popular culture and literature of Slavic countries, which are important in your opinion. We are interested in both theoretical and analytical papers related to the subject of the journal.

For those of you who would like to present announcements regarding research teams or projects, as well as prepared conferences or published monographs related to Slavic popular culture, we also offer the possibility of publishing such texts.

Editorial requirements are given on the journal's website, the deadline for submitting articles is 30.10. 2023.
